Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3S	Arthur D.B and Siddhanth	Reflective and resilience	This week, Arthur and Siddhanth have shown amazing focus and effort in their learning. I'm so proud of how engaged they have been in lessons and the way they've contributed to class discussions. Keep raising your hand and giving your best – it doesn't go unnoticed!
3H	Advik	Resilient	Advik was very resilient when solving a challenging maths problem today. Although he did not know the answer straight away he persevered and found a solution. Well done Advik!
	Dhruv	Do focus	Dhruv has worked hard to improve his focus and concentration during lessons. He is now making more regular contributions to class discussion and is producing learning he should be very proud of.
4L	Sara, Anvitha and Nilanshi	Relationships	Well done Sara, Anvitha and Nilanshi for producing an excellent gymnastics routine based on the theme of love today. You showed good control and your balances and travels between them flowed effortlessly!
4F	Noah	Resilience and Respectful	A merit from Mrs Stott for calmly walking away from a situation and then apologising to another child with a hand shake. Well done Noah!
	Shivi and Krish	Resourceful + do be helpful	These children were superstars in Maths where they helped teach a group of other children who needed some extra support with converting improper fractions to mixed numbers. They were fantastic little teachers and their help is really appreciated! Thank you for kindly supporting your peers.
4U	Kaylie	Resilient	Kaylie has been working hard on improving her reading and this week she was able to share a whole book with me in one deep reading session. Well done Kaylie, keep reading.
	Jake, Nicole, Luke, Raghuram, Paulina, Tomi	team work and be resourceful, respectful	In Jigsaw the challenge was to create a potato persona and come up with a profile and poster. This team did a great job in working together to present their character and worked really well as a group.
Y4 From Mrs Cooper	Shambhavi 4F Mishka 4F Shivanshi 4F	Relationships and Kindness	These children have received a merit from Mrs Cooper for their wonderful relationships and kindness when playing hopscotch in the playground Thursday break time. They encouraged each other and Sara 4L		showed respectful turn taking. Well done and thank you! You are excellent role models to others!

5E	Ahmed	Resilience/reflective	Ahmed has made fantastic progress in his writing this half term, producing a fantastic poem about Space and a great diary entry as Galileo Galilei. Well done for showing your creativity in your writing.
	Sheryl & Dhruvika	Relationships	Sheryl and Dhruvika have both been very supportive of their classmates during maths lessons this week. Thank you for being so kind and sharing your knowledge!
5D	Ranveer, Miracle, Oscar, Bosley and Engin	Resilience	These children have shown great resilience in Spring term. I am very proud of their progress and congratulate them on their efforts!
	Gerta	Resilience/Reflective	Gerta has displayed a great resilience when learning her spellings which helped her improve her writing. I am very proud of you Gerta, keep it up.
5K	Amir	Resilience	Amir always attends the early morning Comprehension club and shows enthusiastic engagement. Well done Amir! From, Mr Johnston
	Mishika, Ritik and Nikki	Resilience and Resourceful	These children have demonstrated exceptional creativity and historical insight in writing a diary entry as Galileo Galilei, using wonderful emotive language and powerful vocabulary to bring his experiences to life.
6A	Sophie	Reflective	Sophie has had a really strong week. She has demonstrated great reflection on her targets and has shown better behaviour for learning.
	Halima	Resilience	Hallima never backs down from a challenge and her resilience has shone through in her work. She is an incredible learner to have in the classroom and is always adapting to the challenges of being in year 6.
6I	Sakeena and Elijah	Resilient	I am so proud of your progress this term. It has been amazing to see you increase your scores in the assessment papers and your dedication has been noticed. Keep it up!
	Joshua	Kind	What a lovely member of 6I you are. Joshua is always tidying up after others and never hesitates to pick anything up from the floor.
	Reni and Samuel	Resourceful	I was absolutely blown away with their artistic skills yesterday. They created beautiful designs linked to Ancient Rome and put together their own mosaics. Future Artists in the making!

Caught in the Act

Shreyan 4L - from Mrs Cooper for being so polite every time she sees him. Thank you Shreyan!

Khloe 3H - from Mrs Cooper for her happy greetings and always being kind.

Junior 4U and Josiah 3H - from Mrs Price for being kind and helping her take the breakfast things to Kick Start Club.

Junior 4U - nominated by 4U Friendship Leader Nivi, for being so kind to Nell and making her happy.

Marlo 5K - for always being polite and kind to adults in the school. This is noticed by many! Thank you!

Extra play for good behaviour in the film on Wednesday afternoon - 5K and 6A, but all classes earned extra golden minutes. Well done!

Special announcement:

Congratulations to Arav (4L) and Mishka (5D) who represented PHJS at the Croydon swimming finals on Wednesday. They were excellent ambassadors for PHJS and came 5th and 6th in their respective events! Well done! (Hopefully they have their medals to show)
